

EU MDR Declaration to NVE Customers

NVE Corporation (NVE) produces high-performance GMR and TMR magnetic sensors.

Notwithstanding any information provided by NVE on its website or in this or other communications concerning the substance content of its products (articles), this document represents our knowledge and belief as of the date that it is provided.

NVE has taken reasonable steps to provide representative and accurate information, but may not have conducted destructive testing or chemical analysis on incoming materials. Certain material or CAS information may not be available as it may be considered proprietary to our subcontractors. This Certificate does not constitute a warranty or otherwise amend or supplement NVE's Conditions of Use, which govern all warranty and any other product sale terms.

NVE manufactures sensors specifically designed and qualified for use in medical devices, and are listed below. More details on these products can be found on our website at <https://www.nve.com/medical>.

Material Declarations

NVE certifies that to the best of our knowledge, NVE products meet the European Union Medical Device Regulation (EU MDR) regulations EU 2017/745 Annex I.

Under Chapter II Section 10.4 of these regulations, medical devices cannot contain Carcinogenic, Mutagenic, or Toxic to Reproduction (CMR) substances or Endocrine-Disrupting (ED) substances in a concentration above 0.1% weight by weight. None of our materials of construction for the declared devices are CMR or ED substances and NVE has reviewed the list of substances referred to by EU MDR including Regulation 1272/2008 Annex VI, Regulation 1907/2006 Article 59, and Regulation 528/2012 Article 5(3). A compiled list of these substances can be found on the European Chemicals Agency (ECHA) website at <https://echa.europa.eu/fr/information-on-chemicals/annex-vi-to-clp>

NVE requires that its parts and material suppliers provide full material disclosure on their products.
